INQUIRY DUE

Meanwhile in Ottawa the Board of Transport Commissioners announced yesterday that a public inquiry will open Dec. 1 in Ed- monton.

An inquest into the deaths of 12 victims brought to Edmonton by passenger train Wednesday was opened Wednesday night by Provincial Coroner D. M. Cantier.

It was the second of three inquests held yesterday by the RCMP Inspector C. W. Goldsmith was sent to the wreck scene on the coroner's behalf.

He will join RCMP from Kamloops, B.C., who are already at the remote Rocky Mountain disaster scene in the capacity of B.C. provincial police.

PAERS ASKED

The Kamloops report said with confidence that the RCMP had asked from the Coroner's office concerning the despatch of the train, the trail and the eastbound transcontinental fleet that collided with it.

Canadian National Railways started its own official on-the-spot investigation into the rail disaster with departmental staff arriving this morning of Francis H. Keeve, Vancouver, western general manager for the railway.

Indication of the train wrecking will begin in Kamloops, B.C., within the next three days.

H. McLean, in announcing the probe, said: "We are investigating the accident. We must place responsibility."

The bodies of one soldier and three trainmen were found in the twisted, fire-blacked wreckage yesterday. The bodies included those of Engineers J. Stinson, James Fisher, A. Olenchuk, Edmonton; and fireman P. D. Postnikoff, Edmonton.

CLAIMS IDENTIFIED

Gen. Sam Sirios, survivor of the accident, thought the soldier's body was that of his brother Lee.

He based his belief on fact Lee had been in the rear of one of those quartered in the forward coach of the train company.

Sirios, who lived in Lethbridge, said the latter had visited him in one of the further back coaches "just 10 minutes before the crash."

"He said he was going back to his own coach to shave," Sirios reported.

Sirios had been taking permission to view the body when it reached Edmonton.

He knew Lee had no dog tag, and when he asked the question had been discussed when the train was leaving Shilo.

"I never got one," Lee was quoted as saying.

Lee had been buried in a military funeral was held yesterday for the 12 soldiers dead in the accident. An Edmonton hospital train, a few hours later at RCAF Dakota from No. 435

Edmonton's Civic Centre

The current efforts of Jasper Place to secure a "Miracle Mile" development for that community should illustrate to every thoughtful person the jeopardy into which the rejection of Edmonton's Miracle Mile has thrown this city. This jeopardy will continue until the Edmonton civic centre is adequately considered and planned so that it will stabilize the downtown area.

Unless Edmonton's unfortunate rejection of the plan on technicalities has entirely alienated the interest of capital in this district, as it might well have done, Jasper Place should have many great difficulties in considering a greater project.

Indeed, the project proposed by Jasper Place is entirely in the pattern upon which the First New Amsterdam Corporation usually operates.

The Edmonton proposal to build a shopping centre in the heart of the city was unique in that the First New Amsterdam Corporation sought sites on the outskirts of large cities and increases its profits by speculating in rising land values.

In short, the Jasper Place proposal is made to order for the First New Amsterdam Corporation. The only factor that could speak for a doubt would be the unreasonable conditions imposed by the legislature on Edmonton had frightened such capital away.

The enterprise of Jasper Place is entirely laudable.

The Margin of Human Error

A full enquiry into the Canoe River train wreck has been ordered by Transport Minister Lionel Chevremont and it is expected that the minister's inquest on the causes of the accident will reveal further pertinent facts.

This is as it should be. The public should know exactly what caused this disaster and insist that adequate steps be taken to prevent it.

But the public should not run away with the idea that railways in general and the CNR in this particular occasion have not taken and do not take the utmost precautions against such tragic occurrences.

It has been suggested that the omission of the word "please" in the desperate order to the agent at Canoe River was the cause of this wreath because these three words should indicate that the train should have stopped at Canoe River to let the transcontinental pass.

The train crew did not get these three words and so passed Canoe River to meet the other head on.

In all fairness, it should be pointed out that the CNR takes laborious care to ensure the proper reception of train orders.

Teletype transmission of these orders

But it is impossible to overlook what the accomplishment of its project would impose upon Edmonton. A "Miracle Mile" development in Jasper Place would deliver a body blow to every merchant and every business in the downtown area of this city.

Given enough space, a Jasper Place "Miracle Mile" could easily cut Edmonton's downtown business turnover in half.

We are not proposing that any steps be taken inimical to Jasper Place's commendable effort to help itself.

But we are proposing that immediate and urgent steps be taken to secure some civic centre development here that would balance the possible development in Jasper Place.

The First New Amsterdam Corporation, for example, might be induced to make new proposals to Edmonton. But no such proposals will ever be made if any body, as long as it is, can and must wait for the legislature to remain to seek to accomplish all such projects to seek a two-thirds endorsement from the burgesses.

Edmonton's first step, then, should be to have that unreasonable and undemocratic amendment removed by the legislature which imposed it.

Until it is removed, downtown Edmonton will be in constant danger from suburban developments which are not only quite possible but extremely likely.

has been considered and rejected because the committee might overlook vital words or phrases.

So the orders are carried by telephone. The man receiving them jots them down by hand and then reads them back to the sender. There is thus a double check on the words.

But the possibility of human error comes into play when the receiver, after the double check is completed, starts to put the orders into type for the train crew.

The chance is that this is what happened in the case of the train wreck.

The order to the train was checked and re-checked and then, it is presumed, the vital words "at Canoe River" were left out when the typed copy was made for the crew.

But if it is permissible for amateurs to make suggestions to experts, we would like to suggest that the double check on these transmitted train orders be deferred until the typed copy for the crew is ready. Thus, the order to the train was checked and re-checked and then, it is presumed, the vital words "at Canoe River" were left out when the typed copy was made for the crew.

They get enough to eat, but not a great variety. They also like our potato chips, and when they are sweetened and they don't have to use their ration of sugar. I might say raisins and currants so they have some for Christmas cakes.

They are along with canned fruit, candies, etc. I have to have some to put up 20 packages.

Our cake mixes are appreciated.

I send one last year and my friend in the States says he has to call in some neighbors and have a party.

They eat last year and that was their Christmas turkey.

Money is scarce and we found something quite high.

Now I hope this will be a help to you all.

Those folks have taken a beating and I hardly know how we can help them.

This is all for now.

those whose origins and destinations lie coniguously to its route.

It is a matter of urgent importance, not to section of the city, but to the whole own property along the avenue.

Thus, city council's decision to hear representations from everybody could postpone and drag out this vital town planning development to an unconscionable length.

An arterial highway serves, not only those whose premises sit, but all those whose origins and destinations lie coniguously to its route.

It is a matter of urgent importance, not to section of the city, but to the whole own property along the avenue.

It would be unfortunate if town planning in Edmonton should fall into the pattern suggested in this proposal, if it be ever adopted and move the city council should feel it necessary to sit as a court to sound out sectional public opinion.

The aldermen are supposed to speak for the city. Let them speak for the city without so much hesitation and delay.

War Without a Front Line Waged by British In Malaya

The war Britain has been fighting for the last two years is one without a front line.

It has few pitched battles. It has few commando raids, isolated rubber plantations, a tin mine deep in the jungle, a village in a clearing.

Out of the tropical forest come the "ghosts"—the enemy—dressed in black or jungle green, armed with rifles, knives and Tommy-guns.

A few hours later they fade into the jungle, disappear, leaving behind the blinding wreck of a rubber store, the bullet-ridden bodies of European prisoners, etc., and the Chinese, Cambodian, etc., who would not reappear.

How many are they, even who they are, no one knows for sure. But for two years they have lied down in the jungle, and are vastly superior in numbers and equipment, and the acts of terrorism are increasing. It is reported that in the last three months the "domination" of populated areas.

Chinese

Security forces could not have held out for so long without help from the civilian population. The Chinese, who have come from 300,000 Chinese squatters scattered throughout the peninsula, have been feeding the guerrillas.

If the squatters could be induced to leave, the guerrillas would lose their main source of food and shelter and would be at risk to the jungle.

The "Briggs plan" began to operate June 1. Colonial secretaries of Malaya, Sarawak and Labuan, paid a visit to Malaya, told the House of Commons June 12 not to expect quick and spectacular results.

Thus began the first of the emergency and the end of July, 1948, civilians were killed, wounded or missing. Of these, 686 were Chinese, 100 were Malays, 254 Europeans and 19 Indonesians.

In the same period 2,539 ter-rmites, mostly Chinese, were killed, wounded or captured. Total but 445 killed and 467 wounded.

Up to the end of June, British army casualties numbered 123 killed and 386 wounded.

Cutoff Protested By Peace River

Sixty Delegates Reject Route
Via Whitecourt, Valleyview

Special to The Bulletin

HIGH PRAIRIE, Nov. 24.—Unanimous rejection of the government-announced Whitecourt to Valleyview cutoff route was voiced here yesterday by more than 60 Peace River delegates attending the meeting of the North Western Highway conference.

Delegates from 15 Peace River and two northern Alberta towns claim the cutoff has not been adequately surveyed or planned. They say existing towns and villages should be linked by good roads before a new road is constructed through 120 miles of uninhabited country.

Representing boards of trade in the Peace River country and northern Alberta, the conference requested that the cutoff highway be built via the northward route from Edmonton, via Whitecourt, to Spike Lake. This would place Peace River end of the cutoff about 35 miles east of proposed route.

President of the Central Peace River Boards of Trade, E. J. Harrington, was in charge of the conference, which was opened by L. R. Leriger. Heading the delegations were: Dr. H. W. Fish; McLeenan; M. Moller; Morrison; G. E. Palmer; W. C. W. A. Peterson; H. E. Debold and Mayor L. A. Bruggeman.

FOR ORIGINAL PLAN
Resolutions passed by the conference call for the government to improve road conditions to the Peace River country. They will ask the government to put into effect the original plan of the 1948 peace conference to maintain an adequate highway to the Peace River district.

Gravel roads may be made between Donnelly and Bay Tree with a bridge at Watson.

They also ask the following conference be carried out:

1.—That the government maintain an adequate highway to the Peace River district.

2.—That gravel roads be made between Donnelly and Bay Tree with a bridge at Watson.

3.—That there be adequate reconstruction and maintenance of the Edmonton, Whitecourt, Prince Albert and Pembinha constituencies.

Premier E. C. Manning and the cabinet as soon as possible to provide resolution of the peace conference.

Proposed resolution will be forwarded to M.L.A.s to use at the next legislative session.

Grain Is Sent To Famine Area

PATNA, India, Nov. 24.—(Reuters)—The Indian government has sent 16,000 tons of grain to Bihar province, threatened by widespread famine after a 10-week drought.

Army engineers have been posted to the vast province of 40,000,000 people to assist in the distribution of food, to harness all available water to irrigate the parched ground.

The drought struck Bihar soon after it had been ravaged by August floods from the Kosi River.—"River of Sorrows."

TAIPEI, Formosa, Nov. 24.—(AP)—

Canada's Civil Defence Chief Will Tour West

OTTAWA, Nov. 24.—(CP)—Gen. F. F. Worthington, Canada's federal civil defence co-ordinator, will leave next week for a 10-day tour of western civil defence organizations and hopes to take with him the new federal manual on civil defence.

He said in an interview today that the manual, to be printed in a pamphlet for civil defence organizations in Canadian provinces and municipalities, may be ready for distribution within the next few days. A manual has been some months in the making.

"Civil defence planning now has got to the stage where we can concentrate on municipal civil defence organization and this is where I think what I'll be doing on my western trip," said Gen. Worthington.

The federal civil defence co-ordinator expects to be in Winnipeg Nov. 27-28; in Regina, Nov. 29-30; in Calgary Dec. 1; Edmonton, Dec. 2-3 and in Victoria Dec. 6-7.

In Victoria, he will attend the convention of the Canadian Association of Civil Defence, which is being held in Victoria.

"These conferences will be attended by municipal officials. In Calgary, the talks will be held on a stand-by basis, ready to be called in at any time.

Gen. Worthington said the western tour will round out his knowledge of what is being done on the municipal level in civil defence planning. He already has toured LONDON, Nov. 24—One of the three or four most popular men in Canada, this year, is M. A. "Scooty" Kennedy, manager of Winnipeg Blue Bombers football team which presently is preparing to engage in tomorrow's Grey Cup final at University of Toronto Stadium.

His intimates are calling him "Castoria" because children cry for him.

Beautiful actresses pied with him to dine, a dozen platinum-plated dowagers hurl their fairest daughters at his feet and the most of industry jostle for the mere privilege of shaking his hand.

Mr. Kennedy accepts these attentions with a good-natured smile, but the more men who have attempted to run a seven-horse parlour and, after scoring with six consecutive winners, have seen the seven horses become typhoid fever in the run from the highbrow to the wire.

"Maybe it's the way I'm wearing my coat," says Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, when asked to explain its amazing popularity.

"I used to wear it in my eyes but I never did it in the menu in the better restaurants. Dari never starved to death for a year until some bought me a comb."

There is no question that Mr. Kennedy's popularity, in part at least stems from an incident which occurred on the Bombers' train.

Mr. Kennedy shaves habitually with a razor which is approximately the size of the cyclotron in the University of California's physics department.

He was sleeping this razors behind the closed door of his compartment the other morning when a couple of football players, who were making their way to the fans, stopped to shave the supply of steaks was exhausted heard the noise.

Within 30 seconds they had cut off the razors and had snatched a portable printing press aboard the train and was manufacturing his own set of tickets for the Grey Cup.

Since the Grey Cup is almost as rare as a first edition copy of "Lady Chatterley's Lover," the passengers did not have a pad to Kennedy's door but attempted to beat down the door.

When Bombers reached Toronto Union Depot, for transhipment to London, the news had preceded them.

Bands played in the roundabout and the people in the path of the warhorses, thousands cheered and, above the tumult was repeated a steady roasting refrain: "We want Kennedy! We want Kennedy! We want Kennedy!"

Having spent a considerable portion of his life out-with football, he made his first appearance in the same such as three or four million dollars, Kennedy was more than equal to the occasion.

He donned a football helmet and disguised himself as Indian Jack Jacobs, the celebrated Wild Pig quarterback.

"Are you Scotty Kennedy?" asked a pretty little girl of 10 or 12 with a 36-inch waist. "A 28-inch waist, a face like Elizabeth Taylor, legs like Betty Grable and a voice like George Burns" running over a piece of horseplay.

For 10 seconds, Kennedy thought seriously of forgetting the reservation.

Then, taking a stern grip on himself, he raked one young tomato with stony visage: "Um" quick, quick, quick, to the door of the Phoenix Avenue Sioux.

Then, with tears streaming down his face, he plunged out of the door.

Oil Kings Humble Lions 6-4 in Season's Debut

By Ennis Fedorn

Edmonton's junior Oil Kings made a successful debut as they opened their schedule against teams in the Western Canada Junior Hockey League by downing "Scooty" Munro's Crows' Nest Pass Lions 6-4 in the Gardens last night.

A crowd of about 1,200 took in the hard fought contest and were treated to much better junior hockey than what was played here last season.

Coach Morey Rimstad's Oil Kings recorded their first win in a 3-2 deficit, scoring four straight goals in the final period for their margin of victory.

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 24.—(CP)—Winnipeg Blue Bombers were back at work last night, after spending a day at a professional football game in Detroit's Briggs Stadium.

On the bus trip back from the pro game, the players took stock of themselves—for they had just watched a game in the United States football league.

Majority of the Bombers' contingent was not impressed by the New York Yankees 49-41 victory.

Other Edmonton goals went to Roger Gelinas and Otto Letourneau. Linebackers were Mark Jaster, Jim McLean, and Gene Achymchuk and Walter Johnson.

Lions held an edge in play throughout but were forced to rely on their strength to score by the 4th quarter.

Lions weren't as ferocious as expected. Coach Scotty Munro's squad was tamed by a 70 minute rain delay in Crows' Nest Pass on Friday night.

Oil Kings Upset Dope Bucket

LET'S SETTLE THE SPORTS SPHERE: Somebody seems to have gotten his wires crossed, judging by Oil Kings' 6-4 scuttling of Crow's Nest Pass Lions on the Gardens last night.

As a test of strength this contest, as are the others coach Morey Rimstad's hustlers will play against more WCHL squads, was supposed to determine whether or not Oil Kings' 100% of the same rink is the Lions. Small wonder that at the finish a heckler needed 'Scooty' Munro, Lions' coach, with:

"Can the Oil Kings play in the Western Canada Junior Hockey league? Heck, what you mean is can the Lions play 'our' league?"

Certainly the locals, out for their first start of the season against a club that has been campaigning for a month or more, didn't appear overmatched.

Just returned from the east, where he attended the annual meeting of the Amateur Skating Association of Canada, Sanford Clare reports having seen Montreal Canadiens star Chicago Black Hawks in a "wonderful" NHL game. According to Clare, who is president of the Edmonton Discobolus Club, the skating executive, both Bob MacPherson, Canadiens, and Bill Gadsby, of the Hawks, played standout roles.

MacPherson and Gadsby were Junior league opponents here a few seasons back . . . Kyle Rose, Southern Methodist back whose name has been linked with next year's Eskimo team, has racked up 11 TDs in seven games this term.

Untimely death in a city hospital yesterday of Louis Rimstad cast a shadow over last night's Oilers-Lions clash. Brother of Morey and "Whiley" Rimstad, Louis played a lot of good hockey and football for various senior clubs in these parts in the 1930s. His sudden passing will come as a great shock to the many friends and admirers the "Rimstad boys" have made over the years.

Trailing 1-0, the west end prodigy now with Trail Smokey Eatons, won for eight stitches in a game lost suffered in a Western International League tilt the other night.

Vern Pachal, who showed with Crow's Nest Lions last night, is reported to be the highest paid junior in the His price: $85 per year.

Calgarians are gradually getting up a head of steam at the thought of the fairly imminent opening of their new hockey stadium. The unveiling could happen no later than Dec. 16. Flyers will carry on that night, the Denver Pioneers carry on George Agius is the lone performer in the U.S. pack entries to wear a No. 1. The Fearless One was once with Edmonton Athletic Club juniors . . . Add sign-of-the-times: hardly an Oil King took a powder from the Gardens last night after knocking off Lions without what is known as a "hep" chick telling him what a great big he was.

That Grey Cup final tomorrow might develop into a terrific kicking duel, what with Bombers' Indian Jack Jacobs pitted against Joe Brod of the Argos . . . Your Host, this year's Kentucky Derby bust, caught up with a lot of "big name" horses in winning the Thanksgiving Day handi-cap at Hollywood Park yesterday. In behind, although not too far away were Ponder and Hill Prince, among others.

Former Flyer trainer Doug Hardy has the curling bug, although a bad back will prevent him from doing much sweeping until further notice.

Grid Hall of Fame Possibility in '51

By Jack Sullivan

TORONTO, Nov. 24—(CP)—A Canadian football Hall of Fame may become a reality in 1951.

Football officials, queried by the Canadian Press on their views about formation of such a memorial, general response was that it would be a wonderful idea and it would be an honor and a tribute to the great players of the game and to the people who have fostered it through the years. Eric Cradock, Toronto president of the International Union, said:

"Craddock added he would recommend formation of the Hall of Fame to the Canadian Football Union board of governors at the CRU annual meeting next February."

"It's a good thing," CRU president Tom Alison of Toronto said. Jim McCafferty, manager of Ottawa Rough Riders of the Big Four, said "I think it should be formed if it had the right substance."

"A grand idea," said Lew Hayman, coach of Montreal Alouettes of the Big Four.

New North Route For Pipeline Asked

Westcoast Would Now Run Line to Coast Via Pine Pass

OTTAWA, Nov. 24.—(CP)—Westcoast Transmission Company, one of the firms incorporated to pipe natural gas out of Alberta, is seeking permission from the Board of Transport Commissioners to run its pipeline to the Pacific coast by a new route, it was stated yesterday.

The company, which previously intended to run its main line over the Rockies by a point of Yellowhead Pass, now wants authority to go through Pine Pass, about 250 miles to the north.

In its new application filed with the board, Thursday, the company asks permission to carry its gas line for an extension of that short way.

From Alberta's Peace Coups to Dawson Creek, B.C., then through Pine Pass to Prince George, B.C., and on to a point "in the vicinity of" Vancouver. There would be a branch line from the Abbotford, B.C., point to the Vancouver and the National Gas Conservation Board of Alberta.

Big 3 Meeting To Draft Reply To Soviet Call

LONDON, Nov. 24 (AP)—The Big Three, America's leaders, will meet next week to draft the West's answer to Russia's call for a new Big-Power pact.

Diplomatic officials said yesterday the Western powers almost certainly will meet when the Soviets have a discussion specifically on German demilitarization.

Indeed, they likely will consider a new meeting of the Big Three, whose ministers should range over the whole field of East-West conflict.

100,000 YEARS OLD

Bones of Huge Animal Found in East States

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—(AP)—A 14-year-old boy who prefers hunting fossils to playing baseball has found the bones of a huge animal that roamed South Jersey 100,000 years ago, the Academy of Natural Sciences discovered.

The boy is James Ruble, of Moorestown, N.J., a suburban community across the Delaware River from Philadelphia.

The animal whose bones he found was a ground sloth, says Dr. Horace G. Richards, the academy's associate curator of geology and mineralogy.

Richards said the discovery, of parts of the backbone, is the first proof this great bear-like animal, 15 feet long, once roamed the South Jersey marshes. Similar finds have been previously reported in the West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

The ground sloth since became extinct. Its closest surviving relative is the elephant.

Richards said the animal's remains were found in a clay deposit on farmland near Moorestown.

Soldiers' Big Families Worry Welfare People

OTTAWA, Nov. 24 (CP)—The post prepared by the Council committee, which warns that unless the rate of training social workers is stepped up, developing military preparations and civil defence plans may "undermine the existing social services."

Elizabeth Govan, secretary of the Canadian Council of Social Work personnel, said in an interview that while there was a tendency in the last year to "wind down" with large families—now like this is being done at the present time. In addition, allowances do not depend on the number of children.

(The wife of an army private receives an allotment of $94 a month, while children in a family this is increased to $103, regardless of the number of children.)

Red China Raps France

HONG KONG, Nov. 24 (CP)—Complaints of Chinese origin today that French forces in Indo-China have invaded Chinese territory at least 40 times and warned France it must bear the "full responsibility and consequences."

The charges were reminiscent of those made by North Korea before invading. Seoul, Korea, will be China before intervening in the Korean war.

Nguyen Huu Tui, governor of Ninh Binh, in Indo-China, said in an interview in Hanoi yesterday that China already has sent an invasion force into Indo-China and urged the United Nations to make an on-the-spot investigation and drive out the invaders.

Draft Term Upped

PARIS, Nov. 24—(Reuters)—The Paris national assembly last night enacted a law extending the period of draft service from 18 to 18 months as part of the Western European defense drive.

KLAN LEADER David C. Stephenson, Indiana Ku Klux Klan leader, who once boasted of an "army" of 1,000, was arrested in a suburb of Minneapolis and jailed for parole violation.

on the TOWN...

By Jack DeLong

Windy and Cold

Edmonton chinooks should be put in an oxygen tent. They're getting weaker all the time.

Don't quite know what to make of this note in yesterday's mail:

Dear, dear Jack—

Have you listened to your lonesome gal yet. Hurry!

Don't miss the fun.

You're truly.

A mushy listener.

PS. It's on at 10:30 p.m.

Sounds as if I better tune in, eh?

This not, from Mrs. E. Wylie, 94 street, made me feel pretty good.

Would you kindly send a message through On The Town to Earl Wylie on HMCS Athabasca from Mother, Dad, Robert, Edna and Teddy with a big hello and hope to see you home for Christmas.

Also we just received your letter saying how you're enjoying the Edmonton Bulletin and On The Town.

You're truly.

Now here's something really worthy of a helping hand:

I mean the big dance scheduled by Strathcona High School Alumni Association in Garneau school gym on Saturday, Nov. 25 starting at 8 p.m.

You're truly.

Treasurer Audrey Clark of the association tells me the executive is running into a lot of tough luck with every organization and sports outfit in town, seemingly putting on functions the same night.

The dance is to raise funds for a memorial scholarship that will be awarded worthy future students of Strona high.

You're truly.

The scholarship will be in honor of the late beloved principal of Strathcona high school, George W. Robertson.

I think these kids deserve a good turnout at that dance. Don't you?

You're truly.

Miss Mary Wile, who is directing the musical review, "Varieties of '51" says the cast for the big show will soon be going all out at rehearsals.

She is sponsored by Edmonton Civic Recreation Commission. First rehearsal will be held Sunday in the Recreation building.

You're truly.

In other years the band has been a teen-ager affair. This year it's more mature. Young people between 20 and 30 are all the rage.

About 50 performers are needed. Those with knowledge of lighting and costumes are asked to turn out. This is the fourth year for talented Mary Wile as director.

You're truly.

A warm greeting to all and especially to people who can keep their ears warm without ear muffs.

Prowse Asks Larger Cut Of Oil Money for Alta.

Albertans are not being given the opportunity they deserve to profit by oil development and this has been a stumbling block in the province's growth.

This was the opinion expressed last night by J. Harper Prowse, Alberta MLA, for a meeting of the Edmonton Young Liberals Association.

"More competitive bidding at a level nearer the Albertan's means, is greatly needed to stabilize what is now a one-sided proposition," he said.

Mr. Prowse urged a not bid system, a bid being around $5,000, instead of the present sealed bid system on oil land, with bids as high as $30,000,000 for a quarter-section.

"Albertans are interested in Alberta," Mr. Prowse said, "and if they do not get a good deal for Alberta as long as the producing oil of oil was arranged to the maximum benefit of the province."

Mr. Lamb succeeded Fred T. King as head of the chamber.

Theological Unit Funds Are Asked

$175,000 Sought For Renovation Of St. Stephen's

United Churches in Alberta are being asked to subscribe $175,000 to renovate the present St. Stephen's College building in Edmonton and to build a new theological unit.

The campaign is the first step in realization of a plan that really began 40 years ago when St. Stephen's College was established.

At that time the founders of the theological college called for a residence first for ministry aspirants and then for classroom and library accommodations later. The first world war brought plans to a halt and temporary classrooms and dormitories were set up in the main floor of the residence building.

A chance to go on with the original plan did not come until 1949 when the church of the United Church of Canada voted the problem of providing more facilities for theological students.

It decided to modernize the present building, to add a new wing and erect a new containing a library, lecture and voice training rooms, transcription rooms, administrative offices and a residence.

Proposed cost was $118,000.

The amount to be raised is $100,000.

The campaign is to be conducted by the church of the United Church of Canada.

City Rejects Property Qualification Proposal

By a 3-2 vote, city council's bylaws committee last night decided that property qualifications should not be required by mayoralty or aldermanic candidates.

Acting on a bylaw from Drumheller, the committee recommended that the city council meeting that night provide a resolution against class 55 of the proposed new Uniform City Act.

The measure, as read at the meeting, would have required qualifications for either mayoralty or aldermanic aspirants.

VOTE AGAINST

Voting against requiring property qualifications last night were Alderman Dickson, Alderman Innes and Ken Lawson.

Those in favor of retaining them were Alderman Athelstan Edd, Drumheller's letter asked support for that city's action in favoring inclusion of property qualifications in the new city act.

City Solicitor Tom Garside told committee members that Calgary now has no property qualifications.

CREW HALTS STETTLER

STETTLER, Nov. 24—Stettler firemen, with M. G. Filipenko at the wheel turned out Wednesday morning to answer a fire alarm at the home of Jim and June, just across doors away from the Filipenko residence.

Fire was believed caused by an electrical short in the wall behind the stove and was being fought by the men.

Damage was slight though great quantities of smoke hampered fire fighters.

This is the second fire for some time but fortunately the town is equipped with the latest in equipment and a capable group of volunteers.

Fire was started by a cigarette butt.

"$818,107,524.13
that's a lot of money!"

The figure of $818,107,524.13 represents the total assets of The Bank of Nova Scotia as at October 31st, 1950.

This large sum exists because tens of thousands of Canadians continue to deposit their money in The Bank of Nova Scotia.

It is an accumulation of active money made possible by the savings of men and women—and of children, too.

What did this active money do? Part of it—$81,853,316.22 to be exact—was held by the Bank in the form of cash, for the Bank's day to day use.

Another part of it was loaned to the Dominion and other governments of Canada, the provinces and counties, cities and towns. This money helped to build schools, roads, bridges, waterworks, parks, public buildings and to provide many other community services. A total of $249,620,156.13 was on loan in various forms to these public bodies.

But the biggest part was put to work by thousands upon thousands of individuals and companies. These people, alone and in groups, borrowed from Smiths, Mrs. Brown's and Dr. Johnson's, and from many other individuals, companies and buildings or to provide working capital, so that they could make and sell in increasing abundance all the varied things that all of us want and use in our daily lives.

Farmers, for instance, were able to improve their livestock, to build new barns or acquire new equipment because they were able to borrow part of the money entrusted to the bank.

Individuals with sound business ideas were able to turn these ideas into useful enterprises.

Companies were able to grow and make more and better jobs.

The part of the Bank's assets being used for all these varied loans, both in Canada and abroad, totalled $346,714,962.74.

Yes, $818,107,524.13 is a lot of money. But, through the services of The Bank of Nova Scotia, Canadians across the land, by putting this money to work for themselves, were able to serve the best interests of every Canadian.

Claxton Pleased At Brigade Show

Finer Parade Than He'd Seen In Two World Wars

FONT LEWIS Wash., Nov. 24—(CP)—On foreign soil, on an American holiday, Canada's defence minister and his country's United Nations Brigade met here yesterday.

Nearly 7,000 troops, the bulk of Canada's Korean brigade, paraded in their best uniforms before the defence minister. Mr. Claxton, and the defence minister was pleased with what he saw.

In the finest parade he had witnessed, Mr. Claxton said, "We have Two World Wars."

Mr. Claxton gave a solemn outline.

"The special force was raised as part of the Canadian army," he said, "not only for the defence of Canada, but also to fulfil our undertakings of our country under the Charter of the United Nations and the North Atlantic Treaty."

... and the first force to be designated for this purpose. We hope other countries will follow."

"Part of the force will be moving soon to Korea, then the training and if necessary to go into action in Korea. The remainder will continue training here until the unit is ready to go into action at the government, if necessary with the approval of Parliament, takes some other action."

MOST POSSIBLE

Mr. Claxton added: "Continue your training, make the most of the young which sometimes may be tough. You are doing the best thing anyone can do by taking an active part in the defence of your country, of your freedom, and of freedom everywhere against the menace of Communism."

Earlier in the day, the American Thanksgiving, more than 3,000 hand-picked U.S. troops

U.K. Will End Marshall Aid

OTTAWA, Nov. 24—(CP)—Well-informed officials said yesterday that Britain had decided to forego further Marshall Plan aid, either under existing dollar trade restrictions.

This decision is not expected to bring any major change in Canada's export position with the United Kingdom. However, officials here believe Canada's export position would have been a lot more favourable if Britain had taken a different course.

Britain now is importing only essentials from Canada. If the dollar restrictions were eased, a market probably would be provided for other goods, too.

May END AID

Suspension of further United States Marshall Plan dollars for Britain's imports of Canadian foodstuffs said, and this may develop into complete termination of that kind of aid to the United Kingdom.

However, Marshall Plan dollars still will flow into other European countries, which is considered, have not attained the same level of post-war recovery as Britain.

Youth Said 'Exploited'

TORONTO, Nov. 24—(CP)—A charge that Canadian youth is being exploited and that "semenism has become a fad" was made in a speech yesterday by Ian Macmillan, the Council for Social Service of the Church of England in Canada. Dr. J. C. Macmillan, of Montreal, a former captain of the University football and basketball teams, tested the report, which asked for examination of "the present economic and social situation to see if it affects a less amorous motivation and hero-worship has an attitude towards commercialized Sunday and family life, the setting up of false money values."

The report labelled business, banking, politics, "big business enterprises . . . which tend to control, subordination and monopoly."

Peace Partisans Lose Member

WARSAW, Poland, Nov. 24—(AP)—O. John Ross, former United States assistant attorney-general, was killed yesterday. He has been beaten with the peace partisans because they have identified themselves with the foreign powers of the West. The international world congress of peace partisans marked the end of one chapter in the search for peace, he told American reporters. "I now must seek new ways."

15 Burn to Death By River Ganges

NEW DELHI, Nov. 24—(AP)—Fifteen persons were burned to death yesterday in a camp on the sacred River Ganges, about 50 miles from here. The dead included 11 children, three women and one man. The tragedy occurred while nearly 1,000 Hindu pilgrims were gathered for the annual Gurumukheshwar fair.

White-Collar Workers Get Their Hands Dirty

RENO, Nov. 24—(AP)—The fellow who handles labor union negotiations for local employers was knee-deep in mud, shovelling for all he was worth.

Alvin J. Lewis, working just as hard, was a union organizer for the Central Trade Council.

Over on First Street a hotel manager carried sooty debris from his roof to the street.

Alvin Lewis, working just as hard, was a union organizer for the Central Trade Council.

The scene repeated over and over again throughout the downtown area hit by a $4,000,000 flood earlier this week.

Volunteer workers by the score gave up their Thanksgiving Day holiday to help clean up tons of ruined merchandise and mud.

Contractors withdrew bulldozers etc., power shovels and trucks from profitable jobs to put them to work at cost or for nothing.

The president of a big equipment company piloted a bulldozer somewhat jerkily along Lake Street.

" Didn't know you could run one of those things," said a friend dryly. "Neither did I until today," replies the company executive.

Army Major, 82, Dies at Toronto

TORONTO, Nov. 24—(CP)—Major E. H. Price, 82, who served with the Canadian Army for more than 30 years, died Wednesday at 100 Bloor St. Major Price, during the First World War, Major Price conducted small arms schools in Regina, Calgary and Victoria.

Ringworm Cases Increase In East

ST. CATHARINES, Nov. 24—(CP)—New cases of ringworm of the scalp have been reported here in the last four days, Dr. D. G. Curley, medical officer of health, said yesterday. The disease has been causing concern in the area for almost a year, but Dr. Curley said the latest outbreak has reached epidemic proportions.

BLACKPOOL, Eng.—(CP)—What's in a name? Blackpool, Eng., has descended to the "un-catchable" "pestilence." Some other towns use the title "rodent operator."

SHIRT-TAILS DON'T IMPRESS

BROOKVILLE, Eng., Nov. 24—(CP)—"Girls don't think much of shirt-tails," he explained grimly. "If they take up sewing for a living, they want to handle luxury materials."

PYTLINE TREATMENT, a liquid taken by mouth, is compounded from special gums, balsams and healing extracts. It goes directly to the inner system and helps to keep the body in a healthy condition and in a state of normal healthy state. Some dislike the taste but results count.
